AFRICAN ART LECTURE SERIES

AT THE NEWARK MUSEUM

SUNDAYS, MARCH 17, 24 & 31

2:30 - 4:00 P.M.

LECTURE ROOM

To celebrate the new exhibition, RITUAL AND CEREMONY IN AFRICAN LIFE, The Newark Museum has invited three distinguished scholars to present a special series of slide lectures.

- March 17 African Art: From Curiosity Cabinet to Art Museums with Roslyn Walker, Curator at the National Museum of African Art in Washington, D.C. Ms. Walker will examine changing attitudes toward African art and resulting 20th-century collecting trends.
- March 24 Kingship and Art in Africa with Suzanne Preston Blier, Assistant Professor of Art History, Columbia University. In her slide discussion, Ms. Blier will focus on aspects of royal patronage, palace furnishings, the arts of coronation and leadership transfer, drawing on examples from Ghana, Nigeria, Zaire and Dahomey.
- March 31 Teaching Women to Rule by Art: Rituals of the Sande Society with Sylvia Boone, Professor of Art History, Yale University. Ms. Boone will explore this association of Sierra Leone women who use the arts of sculpture, music and dance to promote their well being and to instruct initiates in order to foster health, justice and cooperation.
